

CONTENTS

Welcome

Integration
The Company

Inventory Control Setup

Creating Inventory Control Data Files

Inventory Control Parameters
Maintaining Product Lines
Defining Locations
Entering Parts
Using Global Part Change
Importing Parts
Leaving the SETUP Mode

Purchasing Options

Defining Purchase Order Preferences and Forms
Purchasing Decisions
Entering Purchase Orders
Purchase Order Receipts
Purchase Order Returns

Receipts and Issues

Returns
Adjustment
Substitute Parts

Building Subassemblies

Unbuilding and Unpacking

Multiple Warehouses

Processing with Multiple Warehouses

Additional Options

Physical Inventory
Sales Promotions
Price Changes
Reporting
The Closing Process

Syllabus

Section	Subject	Time Estimated
1	Welcome and Introduction	15 min
2	Setup and Defining Parameters	60 min
3	Purchasing Options	45 min
4	Processing I/C Transactions	50 min
5	Lab Exercise 1 and 2	45 min
6	Subassemblies	30 min
7	Warehouses	45 min
8	Physical Inventory, Misc. & Close	60 min
9	Review	10 min
10	Lab Exercises 3 and 4	30 min
	Total Time	390 min

BW Inventory Control Objectives:

- Provide an understanding of the features available in Inventory Control.
- Learn the steps necessary for setting up I/C.
- Learn how to enter parts.
- Learn how to create and receive purchase orders.
- Learn how to enter receipts, issues, and adjustments.
- Learn how to enter and build subassemblies.
- Learn how to enter transactions for multiple warehouses.
- Learn how to update inventory as a result of a physical inventory.
- Learn how to close the period.
- Learn how to use the reports when reviewing and tracking transactions, as well as when analyzing your inventory.